New Jersey's central role in the fight for Women's Suffrage

Did you know that women in New Jersey had the right to vote but lost it for over a century? Storyteller Carol Simon Levin will portray Lillian Feickert, president of the NJ Women's Suffrage Association between 1912-1920, to explore the overlooked role of NJ in the long and frustrating fight for women's suffrage. Levin will share stories of how nationally-known suffrage advocates in NJ staged protests and reinvigorated the fight for the 19th amendment.
